PAINTING FOR GOOD

From brightening up communities and the lives of young people with Volunteer it Yourself painting projects, to sponsoring Community RePaint, a UK-wide paint reuse and redistribution network, we're on a mission to transform people's lives with the power of colour. Explore our biggest makeovers - or see how you can get involved at letscolourproject.com.

Welcome

Whether it's a cheery yellow stripe welcoming us through the front door or a gorgeous mural next to a cosy armchair, Steph and I have always believed that surrounding yourself with positive colour can have a knock-on effect on your mood.

Every year, our paint palettes are curated to reflect current trends and to evoke how we want to feel: uplifted, upbeat... and totally at home. For 2023, we're launching 14 new feel-good shades, such as Village Maze, Fresh Artichoke and our sunny Colour of the Year, Wild Wonder – you can spot them making a splash on our front cover.

In our pull-out chart, you'll find our other brilliant new colours and best-loved hues, and we've also packed these pages with fun decorating and upcycling projects you can complete in a flash. We hope they inspire you to paint a happy place of your own.

Celebrating a palette that brings the beauty of nature into our homes

We've fallen hard for the natural and uplifting tones of Wild Wonder, our Colour of the Year 2023, and the way it can inject a soft, glowing warmth to any room. It's at the heart of our Lush palette, which layers in complementary shades inspired by the forest and the earth for a rooted, calm atmosphere.

We used some of these gorgeous colours to create the warm, enveloping two-tone wall in the nature-inspired bedroom, below. Featuring Overtly Olive and Wild Wonder, the split wall aligns perfectly with the top of the headboard and is a surprisingly mellow backdrop for a beautifully-dressed bed. Complete the scheme with spriggy plants and gleaming metal accessories to add texture, along with cosy

OBJECTS OF DESIRE

1 Decorating with our Colour of the Year? Accentuate its sunny undertones tones with this sweet ochre vase from Marks & Spencer.

2 Snuggle up with checked bedlinen from Zara Home in an easy neutral shade – perfect for mixing and matching.

3 It's a fact: plants are an instant mood-booster, especially this one from Habitat, planted in a quirky terracotta pot that will make you smile.

4 This LaRedoute lamp provides flattering side light – and its green glass shade adds some shine even when it's switched off.

5 It's quick to refresh your space with soft furnishings. Squashy cushions from DFS in coordinating fabrics will bring warmth, texture and cosy vibes to a bed, bench or sofa in a moment.

scatter cushions and throws that will have you hoping for an early night.

Alternatively, you could add a summery statement to a kitchen, with a feature wall of shelving in Tranquil Dawn, as seen above. A streak of Wild Wonder is the perfect way to highlight a favourite collection of tableware, chopping boards or plants in terracotta pots. We love the fun (but not overpowering) contrast of the two colours together. It's a playful look that reflects the design world's move away from pared-back, clinical kitchens, instead bringing statement colour and personality to the heart of the home.

Dulux Simply Refresh; Easycare Washable & Tough

The weekend project

Revitalise your kitchen-diner with clever colour zoning. We've got colours for every surface

This playful scheme illustrates how you can deploy different hues to define and beautify a multi-purpose space in next to no time. Before you kick off your makeover, visit our YouTube channel for tips on painting arches and prepping woodwork.

In the kitchen "zone" to the right, we used Simply Refresh Multi-Surface paint in Ink Well to bring deep blue tones to the cabinetry (no primer required!) and anchor the section. Stripes in Stonewashed Blue and Coral Charm add a playful touch. We used the same Multi-Surface shades to brighten up a vintage table and chairs, a fun, low-effort project that makes great use of leftover paint.

Nearby, a showstopping mural helps to carve out a cosy dining space. We coated the skirting board with Simply Refresh Multi-Surface paint in Stonewashed Blue for the base of the arch and extended the same shade onto the wall. The overlapping arches also feature Coastal Grey at the top and Faded Indigo in the middle. It's a simple, eye-catching design that will create a lively backdrop for every meal.

MAKING IT PERSONAL
Customising furniture with paint is a budget-friendly project that's also kinder to the planet - and with our new hero product, Dulux Simply Refresh Multi-surface, it's never been easier. Choose from a beautiful palette of bright or classic shades (see the full range, left) and get painting - it can be used directly on metal or wood without a primer! We painted pops of Coral Charm to the hanging shelf and filing cabinet, brightened the desktop with Natural Calico and kept the walls neutral with Dulux Easycare Egyptian Cotton and Rock Salt. We can't wait to see you try it for yourself - don't forget to share your makeover projects with #feelgoodcolour.

Micro makeovers

A dash of Simply Refresh Multi-surface goes a long way with these budget-friendly DIY projects

Dulux Simply Refresh Multi-surface; Dulux Simply Refresh One Coat

Colour-drenching - soaking a room's walls and woodwork in the same shade - works brilliantly in small spaces too.

We transformed a room corner with a bold stripe in Pressed Petal to highlight a lush plant collection and complement walls painted in Timeless. To recreate the look, start by painting the base of your stripe on a skirting board using Simply Refresh Multi-surface. It's a product that primes and paints woodwork in one step, so it's also ideal for painting furniture - we updated the vintage stool with a coat of Pressed Petal, too! To complete the "drench" effect, extend the dusky pink stripe all the way to the ceiling, this time using Simply Refresh One Coat for the perfect finish.

Timeless Rich Black Gentle Fawn

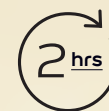

THROWING SHAPES

A paint that primes and colours at once opens up a whole world of creative upcycling projects. We gave a hallway painted in Gentle Fawn a new look with a vintage sideboard, a set of stencils and a single coat of Simply Refresh Multi-surface paint. The fun daisy designs, in Rich Black and Timeless, were painted directly onto the wood and are a playful nod to the sideboard's mid-century heritage; you could also add graphic stripes or simply paint the doors to give an old piece a new lease of life.

Eco Win: Use leftover paint to upcycle a piece of furniture. A little bit of colour goes a long way, plus it's an affordable way to create something totally one-of-a-kind.

COSY CORNER

Your radiator works hard most of the year, but when it comes to redecorating, this humble piece often gets overlooked. However, you can upgrade yours in no time with Simply Refresh Multi-surface, which works on metal as well as wood. If you want your radiator to blend into the background, you can twin it with your wall colour; the palette is designed to work with our Simply Refresh One Coat and Feature Wall ranges so you're guaranteed a seamless colour match (we're loving Polished Pebble and Natural Slate). Alternatively, use a contrasting shade to warm up a neutral room and make a feature of your radiator. In this space, right, we painted the radiator using Simply Refresh Multi-surface in Decadent Damson, adding a plummy twist to walls painted in Timeless.
